THE CHRONICLES OF THE CITY BY THE SEA

Public Prosecution has been instructed to abandon the indictment of Colonel Figgis, M. P., having returned to Paris, but no steps in factoring a national man in which he says that Captain Dray freedom will be his reward.

whereas the confession had been made in the Daily Chronicle also, each party stating that no other paper's offer would be entertained. The Mayor now sends regrets and apologies.

'Gentlemen' Sent to Prison
Calcutta, June 9.—The case in which Low charged Lieutenant Ring and Mr. T. B. B. with assault was concluded yesterday before Mr. Pearson, the Chief Presidency Magistrate.

Both the accused were convicted, B being sentenced to three months' imprisonment.

ment and a fine of $200, the accused realised, to go to complainant as compensation. Both the accused appeared consistently dejected on hearing the sentence which caused a profound sensation among the immense crowd of spectators present in Court. It is understood that the accused intend appealing.

His Worship, in delivering judgment characterised the assault as premeditated and totally unjustifiable. It seemed to be a very serious matter, as the attack, such as could only be expected from the lowest class of ruffians living in the slums commissioned officer in the state's army and an officer of the Public Works Department, respectively, made the case worse and, if gentlemen put themselves into a disgraceful position they must bear consequences.

June 10.--At the High Court yesterday before Justices Prinsiep and Hill, Mr. J. van Son, barrister, with Messrs Henderson Sparkes, appeared on behalf of King Trotter, and obtained permission to apply for a modification of the sentence passed for the assault on Mr. Low. Ball, however, was refused. Justices Prinsiep, among other remarks, said that the defendant

Important Debate on China
London, June 9.—In the course of a debate on China in the House of Commons this evening, Mr Brodribk, replying to various criticisms, notably by Mr Charles Balfour, said the Government proposed to build China to her under no not to alienate the provinces border with Burma whenever this was desired. The British Government will see that force upon the Yaluze is sufficiently at its disposal to protect marchants. He regards the agreement with Russia as a hindrance. Mr. Bradrick further stated that the Government doubted whether a demand for a Russian railway concession with Peking had ever been made; but would declare that if such a demand pressed Great Britain would be forced to advise the Tsun-li-Yamen against a demand that was calculated to subordinate the paramount of China to another Power.

BIRTHDAY. Berlin, May 24.—A banquet was given in the Kasper Hall of the Neol Palace Potsdam this afternoon, in honor of Queen Victoria's birthday. The Emperor, Empress of Germany, the Crown Prince, Frederick William, Prince Eitel Frederick, second son of Their Majesties, and a suite; all the Princes and Court dignitaries; the officials of the British Embassy, the Imperial Chancellor, Prince von Hohenlohe; the Minister of Foreign Affairs, Baron von Bülow, and the leading officials were present.

Sir Edmund Monson and Lady Monson this evening gave a grand reception at British Embassy. There were 1,500 guests present, including the Infanta Eulalie, daughter of the King of Spain; Grand Duke Michael, brother of the Tsar of Russia; the Cabi Ministers; the Diplomatic Corps, and many of the members of the Bourbon and Bonaparte families. It was a brilliant gathering, and was representative of the high society of the French Capital. The music for the occasion was furnished by the bound for the Island of Guam, with newly-appointed Governor, Richard Leary, U. S. N., on board and the Spartan forts at Algiers, joined in the salute.

Rome, May 24.—King Humbert, Queen Margherita attended the reception given in honor of Queen Victoria's birthday, this afternoon at the British Embassy, by Sir Philip Currie, the British Ambassador. Signor Francesco Crispi, Marquis di Rudini, former premier, accompanied Their Majesties. King Humbert telegraphed his congratulations to Windsor Castle.

Gibraltar, May 24.—The Queen's Birthday was celebrated here with great brilliancy.

The officers of the Yosemite, at the invitation of Governor Biddulph, attended review.

News from Newchwang.

The Newchwang correspondent of N. C. Daily News wrote on the 12th inst.—There has been a gathering of Presbyrian Missionaries at this port to do honor to the marriage of the Rev. J. Stabia, between the ceremony was performed on the 31st of May, and the happy pair left next morning for Chefoo per N. Y. steamer Higo Maru. Quite a number of Europeans, indeed, took advantage of the excellent accommodation offered by the Higo Maru, and her popular dominion Captain Yagi, to leave for a while the picturesque mad state of Norehwan.

The Russo-Chinese Railway is progressing, but even with the present delay at the end of construction and under the most favorable circumstances, can hardly be completed within three years. Besides, it is probable that each rainy season will demolish a

The Eastern Chinese Railway Company's statements, which last year were repeated in Chinese, are now running under the Russian flag.

The Danish Lutheran Missions, which have been working in the south of this province for the last few years, have been granted permission to preach or build at Erenkhun and Fingwe, pending a report from St. Petersburg as to how the new province of Heilungkiang will be administered.
